Solutions

S1. Ans. (c)

Sol. C-III and D-IV are the correct replacements. Hence, option (c) is the right answer choice.

S2. Ans. (b)

Sol. B-II and C-III are the correct replacements. Hence, option (b) is the right answer choice.

S3. Ans. (a)

Sol. D-IV is the correct replacement. Hence, option (a) is the right answer choice.

S4. Ans. (c)

Sol. B-II is the correct replacement. Hence, option (c) is the right answer choice.

S5 Ans. (c)

Sol. The sentence can be corrected by replacing the phrases (C) and (D) with (III) and (IV) respectively.

Phrase (C) has the error of conjunction, “but” should be replaced by “but also”. Moreover, in phrase (D) “Who” should be replaced by “which” as Who (or whom) is a pronoun, and is used as the subject or object of a verb to show which person you are referring to, or to add information about a person just mentioned. It is used for people, not things while “which” is a pronoun, and is used as the subject or object of a verb to show what thing or things you are referring to, or to add information about the thing just mentioned. It is used for things, not people. All the other highlighted phrases are correct. Hence, option (c) is the most suitable answer choice.

S6. Ans. (d)

Sol. In phrase (B) “economy” should be replaced by “economic” as ‘economy’ is a noun while ‘economic’ is an adjective. Therefore, to describe the quality of the noun, an adjective must be used. Hence, option (d) is the most suitable answer choice.

S7. Ans. (e)

Sol. All the highlighted phrases of the given sentence are correct and do not require any corrections or replacements. Hence, option (e) is the most suitable answer choice.

S8. Ans. (c)

Sol. The sentence can be corrected by replacing the phrases (B) with (II). In phrase (B), “has” should be replaced by “have” as here the subject of sentence is “Europe's leaders”, so it being plural will take plural verb “have” with it. Hence, option (c) is the most suitable answer choice.

S9. Ans. (c)

Sol. The sentence can be corrected by replacing the phrases (A) and (C) with (I) and (III) respectively. In phrase (A), there is an idiomatic error, where ‘putting an eye’ will be replaced with ‘keeping an eye’. ‘Keeping an eye’ means to watch someone or something carefully; to be attentive to someone or something. Moreover, in phrase (C) the infinitive “to hope” should be replaced by the gerund “hoping” as a gerund is the -ing form of a verb that functions the same as a noun while the infinitive form of a verb appears either as the basic form (with no marking) or with the word “to” and cannot take place of a noun. In the given sentence the activity of making the connection and distinction is a noun phrase, hence instead of an infinitive, a gerund must be used. Hence, option (c) is the most suitable answer choice.

S10 Ans. (a)

Sol. The term ‘Acquiesce’ means ‘agree or express agreement’.

S11. Ans. (b)

Sol. The term ‘brusque’ means ‘rudely abrupt or blunt in speech or manner’.

S12. Ans. (c)

Sol. The term ‘cajole’ refers ‘to influence or urge by gentle urging, caressing, or flattering’.

S13. Ans. (d)

Sol. The term ‘circumspect’ means ‘careful to consider potential consequences and avoid risk’.

S14. Ans. (a)

Sol. Strident means Loud and harsh; Grating.

Statement (I) uses Strident in a grammatically correct and contextually meaningful manner.

Hence, option (a) is the right answer choice.

S15. Ans. (a)

Sol. The term 'deferential' means 'showing courteous regard for people's feelings'.
